THE BULL-DOZER.

A Novel and Useful Invention for Railroads.

We have heretofore alluded to the difficulty experienced by engineers in clearing the railroad track of cattle in time of snow storms. The difficulty has now been effectually overcome by a novel contrivance called "The Bull-Dozer," said to be the invention of the Master Mechanic and Division Superintendent at Carlin. It consists of a pipe connected with the boiler of the locomotive and projecting in front of the engine, over the cow-catcher, through which a jet of steam and, if necessary, a stream of boiling water can be ejected fifty feet ahead of the train as it runs along the track, striking terror to the hearts and hot water to the hides of the most daring of Spanish bovines. An improvement has been suggested by which a steer can be taken up on the cow-catcher and cooked to a turn, so that in the event of a train getting stuck in a snow drift, steamed beef, fresh and juicy, can be served to all on board at a moment's notice.—[Winnemucca Silver State.

EDUCATION IN NEVADA.—For a young State, Nevada makes a showing in her school department of which she has reason to be proud. The facts and figures of school operations are furnished in the report of the State Superintendent for the years 1875 and 1876. According to this authority, there are 7,538 children in the State, of which number 3,000 are in Virginia and Gold Hill. There are 130 teachers employed in the public schools. Storey county, within two years, has expended $60,000 in school houses and school apparatus. About $50,000 per annum is paid by the State toward the support of the schools. The State University has quadrupled its students in two years. Compulsory education has not met the expectations of its friends, and the Superintendent suggests that the law shall be overhauled by the Legislature and amended.—S. F. Call.

SOMETHING WONDERFUL.—Nevada has a State Treasurer whose name in the list of office-holders deserves to be written in letters of gold. It is Schooling. The Legislature allowed him $2,000 to be used in extra clerk hire, and he returns $1,183 of the amount unexpended. If there is a parallel in existence to this, we do not remember to have seen it.—S. F. Call.

A WISCONSIN hen, a few days ago laid an egg with the letter "C" on it; but not even Josh Billings can spell War with a "C." The egg, according to our notion, was intended for the Centennial, but the hen was bulldozed, and consequently late in getting in her returns.—Norristown Herald.

ALL RIGHT.—Thus far the "cattle on a thousand hills" in Elko and adjoining counties are getting along first rate. On the south side of the CALIFORNIA BANKS.

The San Francisco Bulletin of last Saturday publishes a tabulated statement showing the condition of banks in the State, one hundred in number in thirty-five counties, giving the amount of coin, capital invested, deposits, loans and discounts, investments in real estate, earnings, expenses and dividends for the last six months, and cash in vaults. These banks represent a paid up capital of $14,409,600; reserves, $9,585,400; deposits, $122,911,300; cash in vaults amount to $18,940,700. Some difficulty is experienced in giving the exact amount of assets, owing to the differences existing in the manner of computing them, some banks, for instance, not including over drafts in statements of assets. As a general proposition, however, the statements of the various banks show a proper relation of assets to liabilities and are in a healthy condition.

In addition to incorporated banks there are ten private banks in San Francisco whose actual capital and business is not exactly known, but are estimated as representing about $5,000,000 capital. There are also a number of small private concerns, agencies, etc., scattered throughout the State whose aggregate capital would amount to but a small sum. The report is made up from statements obtained directly from the banks.

THE U. S. AGAINST THE C. P. R. R.

The Government is making an effort to compel the Central Pacific Railroad Company to pay interest due on its bonds. The case is now on trial in the U. S. Circuit Court at San Francisco. The amount claimed as due the Government is $1,836,635 10. The railroad contend that the Company are allowed to the first of July, 1876, to complete the road to the standard required by the Act, and that the Government can not by the terms of the contract, collect 5 per cent. on the earnings of the road until after July 1st, 1876.

PARTITION OF PROPERTY.—In the San Francisco real estate transactions of the past several days, transfers and partition of properties belonging to the bonanza firm figured frequently. It is said that these transactions are made for the purpose of preventing litigation and to keep the properties out of the Courts in case any of the firm is called to that country where mining speculations and bonanzas are unknown. It is the adoption of a precaution which will, in time, save considerable trouble and inconvenience to the surviving partners, and keep the settlement of the estate of any deceased partner out of Court.

EUREKA MINING SUIT.—Judge Cole has denied the application of the Eureka Consolidated Mining Company for an injunction against the Richmond Consolidated Mining Company, Limited, of London, and ordered the restraining order vacated. The decision was made on the ground that the London corporation was not the right defendant. The same proceeding will immediately be instituted against the American corporation, the Richmond Mining Company of Nevada.

IT is surprising how much the Carson Tribune and our evening cotem. know about everything connected with the JOURNAL. Put them in a bag, shake them up well, and it is hard to tell which one would come out first sputtering about this paper. Rest easy, gentlemen; show the public you can first successfully attend to your own business, and then you can sneak around your neighbors.

DISCONTINUED.—Wells, Fargo & Co. have discontinued all their offices in Utah Territory with the exception of Ogden. The reason is that the U. P. R. R. now owns the railroad to Salt Lake City, and they also run their own express on all of their lines, and hence when they buy a road on which Fargo is found they make room for the Union Pacific Express Co.

We understand our School Trustees are on the point of asking the taxpayers of Reno to petition the Legislature to grant them the privilege of issuing $20,000 in bonds for the purpose of benefiting the public schools of Reno. These bonds will be payable in ten years, and bear interest at 12 per cent. per annum, and to provide for their redemption a special tax of one-eighth or one-quarter of one per cent. per year will have to be levied. Certainly there are many reasons why the citizens of Reno should look with favor upon the request of the Trustees. Our schools are the best advertisement we can have for the town, and it is far better to have a light tax each year for the cause of education, than to have a large one every two or three years. We would favor a tax for the support of the public schools when we would not one for any other purpose.

There can be no question but that $20,000 could be well expended. We need and we ought to have a substantial brick school house on the north side of the track, with sufficient grounds surrounding it for the convenience of the pupils. Any additional improvements upon the present school house would only be money thrown away. Our idea would be to use the present building for the primary department, or if it could be sold for a reasonable sum let it be sold, and the new school house be made large enough to accommodate the town for years to come. We must do something soon. Our present house is overcrowded, and still there are fifty children not in attendance, because their parents are justly afraid of the injurious effects likely to follow such a penning-up. We must remember that Reno is still growing and the excellent educational facilities afforded in the past have greatly contributed to our present position. Improvements in this respect means a constant accession to our population. Do but our duty and Reno will become noted through her schools alone.

YIELD OF THE MINES.—The net yield, or value for taxation, says the Virginia Chronicle, of the mines of Storey county for the three months ending December 30, 1876, was $4,584,367 68 on which a tax was assessed amounting to $90,352 30. Of this amount the bonanza mines—Con. Virginia and California—yielded $4,288,862 39, on which their assessed tax was $83,242 82, leaving but a little over $7,000 for all the other producing mines to pay. The various tailings works yielded $13,800 58 during the same period, on which the assessed tax is $269 11.

GRANT TO BE CANAL-PRESIDENT.—It is reported that upon the completion of the negotiations now pending between Nicaragua and the United States for a treaty concerning the subject of the proposed ship-canal, Grant will be tendered the position of President of the corporation or company which, under the provisions of the treaty, will be authorized to undertake the work of constructing this great canal.

REPRESENTATIVES of the Comstock mines are still in consultation with the Committees of Ways and Means of the Senate and House, relative to amending the bullion tax, and have agreed to submit a compromise bill, the bonanza firm agreeing to pay the taxes that are now in suit, amounting over $200,000. Unless the matter is settled the State will have to borrow $200,000. It is thought the matter will be arranged, and a bill introduced to amend the law.

ALL who have read "Helen's Babies," will be sorry to hear that "Toddie" died suddenly of membraneous croup, in Brooklyn, last week. He was the youngest son of John Habberton, the author of the book named, and was a child of unusual quaintness and promise.

DOUGLAS JERROLD says that Eve ate the apple in order that she might dress. This is not improbable. But it does not appear that she dressed very extravigantly. That was left for her daughters.

"MARY," said a woman to a new servant, "when you hang out the clothes be careful to put the nicest pieces nearest the street."

THE reports from the West indicate that the hog crop is likely to be larger than last year, the number and weight both show

Elector Daggett's View of the Situation in Rhyme What a Visiting Journalist Thinks of It.

[Special Correspondence S. F. Alta.]

WASHINGTON, January 31st, 1877.—Daggett, the Republican bearer of the Electoral vote of Nevada, was sitting at a desk scribbling, recently, when your correspondent was looking on and wondering. What next? After he had departed, the following chips were found on the desk, which show what kind of work was going on in his mind:

The Coming Invasion.

Ho! Commissioners, ho! Are you deaf, dumb and blind?
Can't you see what's before you, if not what's behind?
Are you sure that the reservoirs, hydrants and hose,
And engines and ladders, which every one knows
May be needed—are kept in trim, day and night,
To put on a fire or put out a free fight?
Are you cleansing the alleys and scraping the streets?
Increasing the "peelers," contracting their beats?
And flushing the sewers and cleaning the squares?
If not, you are wrong, for one Watterson swears,
And other swash-bucklers as doughty and bold,
That before the New Year is another month old,
A clean hundred thousand of fierce Democrats,
Unarmed, but with claws meekly sheathed like a cat's,
Will deluge the city from steamers and cars,
All smelling with brimstone and a owling like Mars,
A "clean hundred thousand," we said. Now we insist,
That number in full, not that large number clean:
For our turbulent friends—and that hold it no sin—
Take unkindly to water without and within.
Whether clean or unclean, they will be here.
The sight
Will be grandly impressive. They come not to fight
But to coerce the Capitol, darken the streets,
And scowl as the Members looks up from their seats,
To walk with long strides, looking earnest and wise
'Neath the broad and limp hat-brims half hiding their eyes?
To talk of the negroes and desolate farm
In the South, with their canes hanging over their arms:
And in accents dramatic, deep down in their throats,
Speak of peace, with a knife hidden under their coats.
This speaks of the South. From the North will pour in An army of Democrats. Here we begin
To see from what States and what towns, East and West,
Will come this unwholesome political pest?
The slums of New York will contribute, of course
Their quotas of vagabonds, reveled and hoarse
With howling for Tilden. The lark, we suppose,
Of an eye, or an ear, or the part of a nose,
Will not much detract from their value and weight
As moral supporters and friends of the great Reformer. Who will turn out a few
Old fossils and young, who but yesterday knew
That Jackson was dead. So Wisconsin seek place
With States that are peopled by the "superior race."
Some squads from the Wabash and Maine, and perhaps,
From Rhode Island may step in to fill up the gaps
Made by hunger and thirst in the dread rank and file
Of the horde from the South and the Emerald Isle.
Then wash down your gutters and clean up your streets
Prepare for the time when this grand army meets
To clean out the lunch tables, raid on the bars,
Scowl darkly through windows, and bully the "waiters."
And lastly, with judgments severely profound,
To throw the great weight of their influence round
Both Houses of Congress, committees and all,
In their counts and reports of the votes of last Fall.
So, close up your windows when that day arrives
And lock up your silver and sharpen your knives
For board and free lodgings will be in request
When these hordes gather in from the South and the West.
We pity the keepers of shops and saloons;
We pity the venders of clothing and spoons.
We pity the peddlers of oysters and clams,
We pity the dealers in hardware and hams:
We pity them all but by far more profound
Is our pity from him from the "dark, bloody ground"
Who unwisely invited them here. He will find
They will plunder him poor, then borrow him blind.
Their bad at the prison, their bills at the inn,
Their scores at the grog shops and houses of sin
Must be settled by some one. Has Hewitt the nerve
To open a soup house and publicly serve
The hungry reformers with porridge and bread,
And send them away when the cause is dead?
Be that as it may, they'll be here in time—
Get ready your shot-guns and chloride of lime:
Close your gates; bar your windows; the damp
Winter snows
Soon will wash out the tracks of the scourge
when it goes.

So you can see that the Elector from Nevada has no fear of the ordeal he will have to pass through when they reach his State and question him as to his eligibility. He resigned his Clerkship in the Supreme Court the day before election, if you remember. And, by the way, the only ineligible Elector who had the sense to take the step in time to prevent any cavilling.

THE LEGISLATURE.

What was Done in Carson Monday.

Senate.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS.

By Cassidy—Appropriating $1,000 to the widow of the late C. E. DeLong for payment for her husband's services in the prison investigation.

By Baker—Directing the Controller to pay the White Pine Indian war claims.

By Shepherd—Making the fees of jurors $3 per day and 15 cents mileage.

By Stewart — Preventing cruelty to animals by fine and imprisonment, and owners are made liable for overloading or riding soreback animals.

By Blair—Prescribing the qualifications of witnesses.

By Comins—Amending section 6 of the Revenue law.

By Farrell—Obliging the owner of the animals to claim his property in three months, under penalty of forfeiture.

By Garrard—Creating a current expenses fund for Esmeralda. Rules suspended and passed.

The House.

Mighel's House of Refuge bill was reconsidered and placed on file.

The Joint Convention

A Large Storey County Delegation in Carson.

A dispatch from Carson to the Virginia Chronicle of the 12th says:

There is a large delegation of Storey county people here to-day, the object of their especial interest being the proposed modification of the bullion tax law. Storey county is represented by her Commissioners and by Judge Lewis, counsel for the county and State. Mayor Kaneen and City Attorney Stephens represent Virginia, and Gold Hill Town Councillors are here also. The mining companies are represented by the Superintendents of the California, Consolidated Virginia, Best and Belcher, Utah, Sierra Nevada, Hale and Norcross, Gould and Curry, Bullion, Belcher, Yellow Jacket, Justice, Overman, Caledonia and several other mines. Mayor Kaneen and City Attorney Stephens have in charge a memorial from the Board of Aldermen urging the passage of the proposed amendments. There is scarcely any opposition expressed by the members thus far, in consequence of the unanimity with which the measure is supported by the county and town authorities, and it is not probably that any serious opposition will be made. Members who came here determined to vote against any modification now admit the justice of the argument in its favor. The bill will probably come up for consideration to-morrow.

SENSIBLE ADVICE.—"Have you enemies? Go straight on and mind them not. If they block up your path, walk around them, and do your duty regardless of their spite. A man who has no enemies is seldom good for anything; he is made of that kind of material which is so easily worked, that everyone has a hand in it. A sterling character—one who thinks for himself and speaks what he thinks—is always sure to have enemies. They are as necessary to him as fresh air; they keep him alive and active. A celebrated character, who was surrounded with enemies, used to remark: "They are sparks which, if you do not blow, will go out of themselves." Let this be your feeling while endeavoring to live down the scandal of those who are bitter against you. If you stop to dispute you do but as they desire, and open the way for more abuse. Let the poor fellows talk; there will be a reaction if you perform but your duty, and hundreds who were once alienated from you will flock to you and acknowledge their error.

THE ALTAR.

GATES—BAKER—In Reno, February 11, 1877 by Judge Richardson, Charles C. Gates to Miss Sarah Amelia Baker, both of Reno.

NEW TO-DAY.

NOTICE.

TO JAMES, OR JAMES H. WEST—TAKE NOTICE—You are hereby notified that the co-owners with you in the claim known as Blackhawk Mining Claim, situate in Peavine Mining District, Washoe county, Nevada, located in the month of February, A. D. 1875, have worked the same in accordance with the United States mining laws so far as their interests are concerned. Now therefore, you are hereby notified to come forward and contribute your pro rata in accordance with the requirements of the United States mining laws, within ninety days from the first issuance of this notice, otherwise the your co-owners will avail themselves of your rights as granted them by the United States mining laws, approved May 10th, 1872, Section five (5).

E. C. SESSIONS.

Reno, Feb. 12, 1877.

DEMOCRATS ATTENTION.

AT A MEETING OF THE DEMOCRACY of Washoe County, held at the office of Judge Thos. E. Haydon Reno, Nevada, on February 12th, 1877, Mr. Thos. Wheeler was elected Chairman and Ed. Vesey, Secretary. On motion the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That whereas, the Republican Senators and Assemblymen from Washoe county by the introduction of a bill creating a Republican State Prison Building Committee implying thereby the inefficiency of and superseding the present Democratic Board of State Prison Commissioners upon the one hand, and upon the other making the appropriation a partisan question, are deserving the reprobation of all good citizens of Washoe county

That in view of the fact that a majority of the Republican Members of both Houses opposing the appropriation, the bill cannot be passed as a partisan measure.

That our Senators and Representatives in impugning the integrity of the Democratic Board of State Prison Commissioners and of making a political question of the appropriation of the State Prison at Reno justly deserve the condemnation of all parties in Washoe county, and it should consign them to political oblivion.

That if any change be made in the present Board of Prison Commissioners, it be the addition of one Democrat and one Republican to act with said Board.

Resolved That the foregoing resolutions be published and that a copy thereof be sent to our Senators and Representatives in the Legislature.

THOS. WHEELER, Chairman.

ED. VESEY, Secretary.

DANCES.—The second Masonic social is for to-morrow evening.

On Thursday evening the Riverside Club give their social, the last one of the present term.

We hear of quite a number of Renoites who propose attending the Engineers' ball at Wadsworth on the 22d.

The Firemen's ball is exciting great interest, and a large number expect a gay time on the 22d.

LETTERS DETAINED.—The following letters are held for postage: Miss Maria Brolli, Hobochin, N. W. Terri.; Miss Josephine Lemey, Erie, Mich.; D. D. Brown, San Francisco. And three others for better address: Phillipo Petroin, Margaret Elder, John Eichenberge.

CHINESE New Year has arrived, and all Chinamen are anxious to have money. Those who cannot get it honestly will steal, and larcenies by Chinese servants are now in order. Those who employ such domestics should place all their valuables in secure places.

MUSIC.—Attention is directed to the card of John Cox, who is prepared to furnish band and string music for balls, parties or celebrations. Mr. Cox will give satisfaction. He can be consulted at the Humboldt saloon.

CLOTHING. — Money is no object with Cohen, since he has removed into his new quarters. He declares he can sell clothing 20 per cent. below cost, and still make money. Go and learn his secret.

JULIA is coming to the front again. Our Reno stock sharps hope to get even. It will help the town out if they do, as there are nearly 5,000 shares of that stock held here.

CONTRACTOR.—Ben Wood puts in a card this morning. His work—the Episcopal Seminary and Odd Fellows' Hall—is the best evidence of his skill.

THE Methodist Social will be held at the residence of W. H. Tredway, near the Reno Lumber Yard. All are invited to attend to-morrow evening.

ACCIDENT AT WADSWORTH.—J. C. Woodbeck, an employe of the C. P. R. R. at Wadsworth, had a piece of steel driven into his right cheek just below the eye by a hammer. He came to this place yesterday afternoon and had his wound dressed by the company's surgeon. Dr. Bergman says that the eye is not injured, but the wound bled profusely, the steel having cut a small artery.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.—Isaac Fredrick celebrated his 50th birthday on Sunday evening, and a number of his fellow townsmen, with friends and relatives from Virginia, joined with him in making the occasion a pleasant one. Our only wish is that Isaac may live 50 years longer, and then be as jolly and young as now.

VERY ILL.—Mr. J. E. Simpson has been very sick for the past ten days, and at times his life was dispaired of, though he is not by any means out of danger yet. Nervous prostration and typhoid fever is the cause. Hope he will be O. K. in a day or two.

SOCIAL. — The Good Templar's social at the Opera House last evening was a decided success. The crowd of dancers enjoyed themselves hugely. We noticed Messrs. Gladding, Caldwell, Allen and other members of the Assembly present.

DEMOCRATS IN COUNCIL.—From an advertisement elsewhere it will be seen that the Democracy of Reno have held a meeting, and adopted some resolutions. We do not see where to joke comes in.

SKATING is a Reno amusement. They draw lots for turns on the pond. Not more than one person, owing to large feet, can get around at a time.—Carson Tribune.

That is because Parkie's nose is in the way.

SERENADE.— The German Military Band came down from Virginia last evening, en route East. After their arrival and before their departure the Band favored Isaac Fredrick with a serenade, much to the delight of the neighbors for blocks around.

THEY "bulldosed" a stranger out of $220 in Reno Saturday night. Stealing seems second nature to a Renoite.—Carson Tribune.

How fortunate that the writer of the above does not live in Reno. There would be no town.

REVIVAL.—Next week the Methodists here begin a series of revival meetings. All invited.

POSTPONED. — The Golden Fleece has postponed the sale of delinquent stock until the 23d.

ADVERTISING MEDIUM.—The advertising columns of the JOURNAL afford an excellent opportunity to our readers to study out where purchases of all kinds can be made on the most advantageous terms. All classes of goods can there be found advertised from a suit of clothes or nice silk dress to the daintiest ornament in the jewelry line. The JOURNAL reaches nearly every family as well as business house in the county, and, therefore, advertisers seek its columns that the public may know what they have for sale on [illegible] street and get a [illegible] avis." For Beauty, Simplicity, Durability and Strength, they have no equal. Terms, easy. Machine needles and attachments kept on hand. Machines cleaned and repaired at the most reasonable rates.

PALACE BARBER SHOP.— Messrs Morris & Frankinfield desire to anto their friends and the public in general, that they have opened an elegant Barber Shop, on Virginia street, fronting Budden's photographic gallery. New room, new furniture, and the only latest improved Rochester barber chair to be found in Reno. The most comfortable chair made. Shaving, hair cutting, shampooing, and dying attended to in a practical and workman-like manner. Everything to insure the comfort and pleasure of customers has been provided. Ladies and childrens' hair cutting and shampooing a specialty. All kinds of tonics and hair restoratives always on hand, together with the celebrated "dry shampoo," warranted to remove dandruff, and all itching of the head.

NEW STORE.—Yankee Dodge is again to the front. He is well aware of the hard times and knows that Reno wants goods sold at the lowest rates and for Cash. Hence Dodge has opened a store next door to Pollard's Hotel, Commercial Row, where he will keep on hand a general variety of Yankee Notions, such as Soap, Perfumery, Hose, Ladies and Gents' Underwear, Towels and Counterpanes, Buggy Robes, Horse Blankets, Whips, etc., etc. He has a well assorted stock of goods which he will sell cheaper than anybody. Call and examine them. *

MERCHANT TAILOR.—M. Raphael has secured his old quarters on Virginia street, for the purpose of again pursuing his calling. Gentlemen wishing the latest styles of suits are respectfully invited to give him an order. All kinds of repairing done at short notice. *

DR. FLATTERY.—This successfully celebrated physician and surgeon whose world wide traveling reputation and 26 years graduated practical experience as a specialest, etc., will arrive at Chamberlain's Hotel, Reno, Saturday, Feb. 17th, to be consulted free of charge one week, and where he will continue to treat successfully with new remedies, embracing the best approved treatment from the most remote Oriental and Occidental countries for the cure of all forms of chronic, special and general diseases, however malignant and inveterate they may be. *

N. B.—The Dr. can be consulted at 106 C street, Virginia City, up to the above date.

GENTS' cloth, dog and buckskin gloves, paper collars and cuffs at B. S. Coggeshall & Co.'s. *

DENTIST'S OFFICE.—Dr. W. D. Wagar, dentist, has removed from Simpson & Osburn's drug store, to the office on Virginia street, occupied by Drs. Johnson & Dawson, where he is prepared to perform all operations in his line at low prices. All work warranted. *

CALL at City Drug Store and get a bottle of Dr. Abernethy's celebrated ginger brandy. *

SELLING OUT.—Mrs. L. M. Chase is determined to close out, regardless of price, her large and varied assortment of dry goods and miscellaneous articles. Now is the time to buy cheap goods. *

TONSORIAL WAR.—There is war among the barbers. Schwartz, at the International, has inaugurated it by reducing the price of hair-cutting from 50 to 25 cents, and shampooing from 50 to 25 cents. Help keep the prices down to a fair figure by patronizing those who are applicable to Messrs. Grey & Isaacs, dry goods merchants, Virginia street. Seeing since they have come amongst us, ladies have discovered to their joy that the prices in dry goods have fallen to one-half their original price, and still they tumble, as Grey & Isaacs are determined to still continue to lead the dry goods trade of Reno, and with that aim in view they have marked down their entire stock to enable them to clear out all their Winter goods, so now is your opportunity ladies to buy dry goods at your own price, at the same time showing your appreciation for their past acts. *

AGENT.—Mr. W. J. Marsh has been appointed local agent for Reno of the well known musical house of Sherman & Hyde, of San Francisco. Therefore Mr. Marsh can sell you pianos, etc., on the same terms you obtain them below. *
